Only fear in its full grace. This is a well researched book about the role of the four Windsor princes during the Second World War.

Morgans Mountain (The Morgans Book 3)

Becker's background in movie animation is apparent in his sense of pace, motion, and action; his extraordinary detail work; and his sharp visual cues: objects of imagination and escape. The hero's journey from this standpoint in the novel thus feigns the positive social features of a rite de passage or a religious quest after God and salvation, in yet another resounding inversion of the Dantesque journey.
